ATTRACTIONS

SARIKEI TOWN

Sarikei town is a bustling riverside town and is a major transit point on the Pan-Borneo Highway and the Pejang River. Visitors from the north and central region traveling to the southern region pass through Sarikei town and so do visitors traveling from the southern region of Sarawak. The town's icon – a sculpture of the pineapple is proudly displayed right in the centre.

SARIKEI CENTRAL MARKET

The Sarikei Central Market, situated next to the Police Station, is a must-visit with over 400 stalls selling a variety of fresh fruits, vegetables, handicrafts and jungle produce. The bustling waterfront is truly fascinating to watch with many express boats arriving and departing from Kuching and Sibau as well as longboats from upriver settlements bringing in produce. In the evenings, the locals gather to watch the sunset from the wharf.

Business Hour :
7.00 am – 1.00 pm

SEBANGKOI RECREATIONAL PARK

Sebangkoi Recreation Park (25km from Sarikei town) can also be accessed by an hour's drive from Sibau. The Park is a popular site for picnics, family outings and jungle trekking at some of the waterfalls in the vicinity.

EATING OUT

Sarikei has its share of old Chinese coffee shops known as kopi tiam with their dependable staple of morning coffee, half-boiled eggs and noodle dishes.

The locals will insist that you try the charcoal-fire toasted roti bakar (toast) at the Aik Seng Cafe on Wharf Road in Sarikei town. The jakar king prawn noodles, served in a coconut shell is a Sarikei speciality.

Sarikei town has a number of popular food courts such as the Taman Selera Baij Jaya, Popular Foodcourt, Sarikei Pavilion and a number of restaurants serving Chinese and Malay cuisine, alongside several fast-food chains.

A must-try in Bintangor town is the tumpik Bintangor made of sago flour and popularly referred to as the Bintangor pizza. The rojak Bintangor, a traditional fruit and vegetable salad dish, also comes highly recommended.

The best time to savour Iban cuisine is during the Gawai celebrations on 1st June. A popular dish is pansuh which is meat or fish seasoned with lemongrass and cooked in bamboo over an open fire. Other Iban delicacies are kassam which is fermented meat or fish. Fresh-water fish is cooked in soups with local eggplant or lemongrass. Forest ferns such as micin and the fiddlehead pucuk paku have a special place in the diet of the people.

ABOUT SARAWAK

Located on the north-western shore of the Island of Borneo is Sarawak, the largest state of Malaysia. A beautiful land coloured in peace and tradition, Sarawak is a prime destination for travel nomads seeking untouched culture, exhilarating adventure and breath-taking nature.

Whether it is sharing in the lifestyle of one of the many indigenous communities' longhouses, exploring gigantic caves in the heart of the Bornean rainforest, or shooting the rapids on a swollen river, visitors will leave Sarawak having enjoyed a host of memorable experiences.

As a part of Malaysia, Sarawak is a peaceful and stable place for travel, suited for large groups or single travellers alike.

With thick jungles a few steps from luxurious resorts and modern amenities, it is the perfect location for a wide range of experiences. As these two worlds collide, the people of Sarawak meet in the middle, with a mixture of modern savvy and proudly-kept traditions, wild nature lining organised infrastructure and old-fashioned hospitality mixed with connectivity.

Revealing a side of Asia unlike anywhere else, Sarawak offers an alternative for those seeking humble authenticity far from the tourist-trap clichés, whether their visit to Sarawak is a complement to a trip to Peninsular Malaysia and neighbouring countries, or a journey of discovery all on its own.

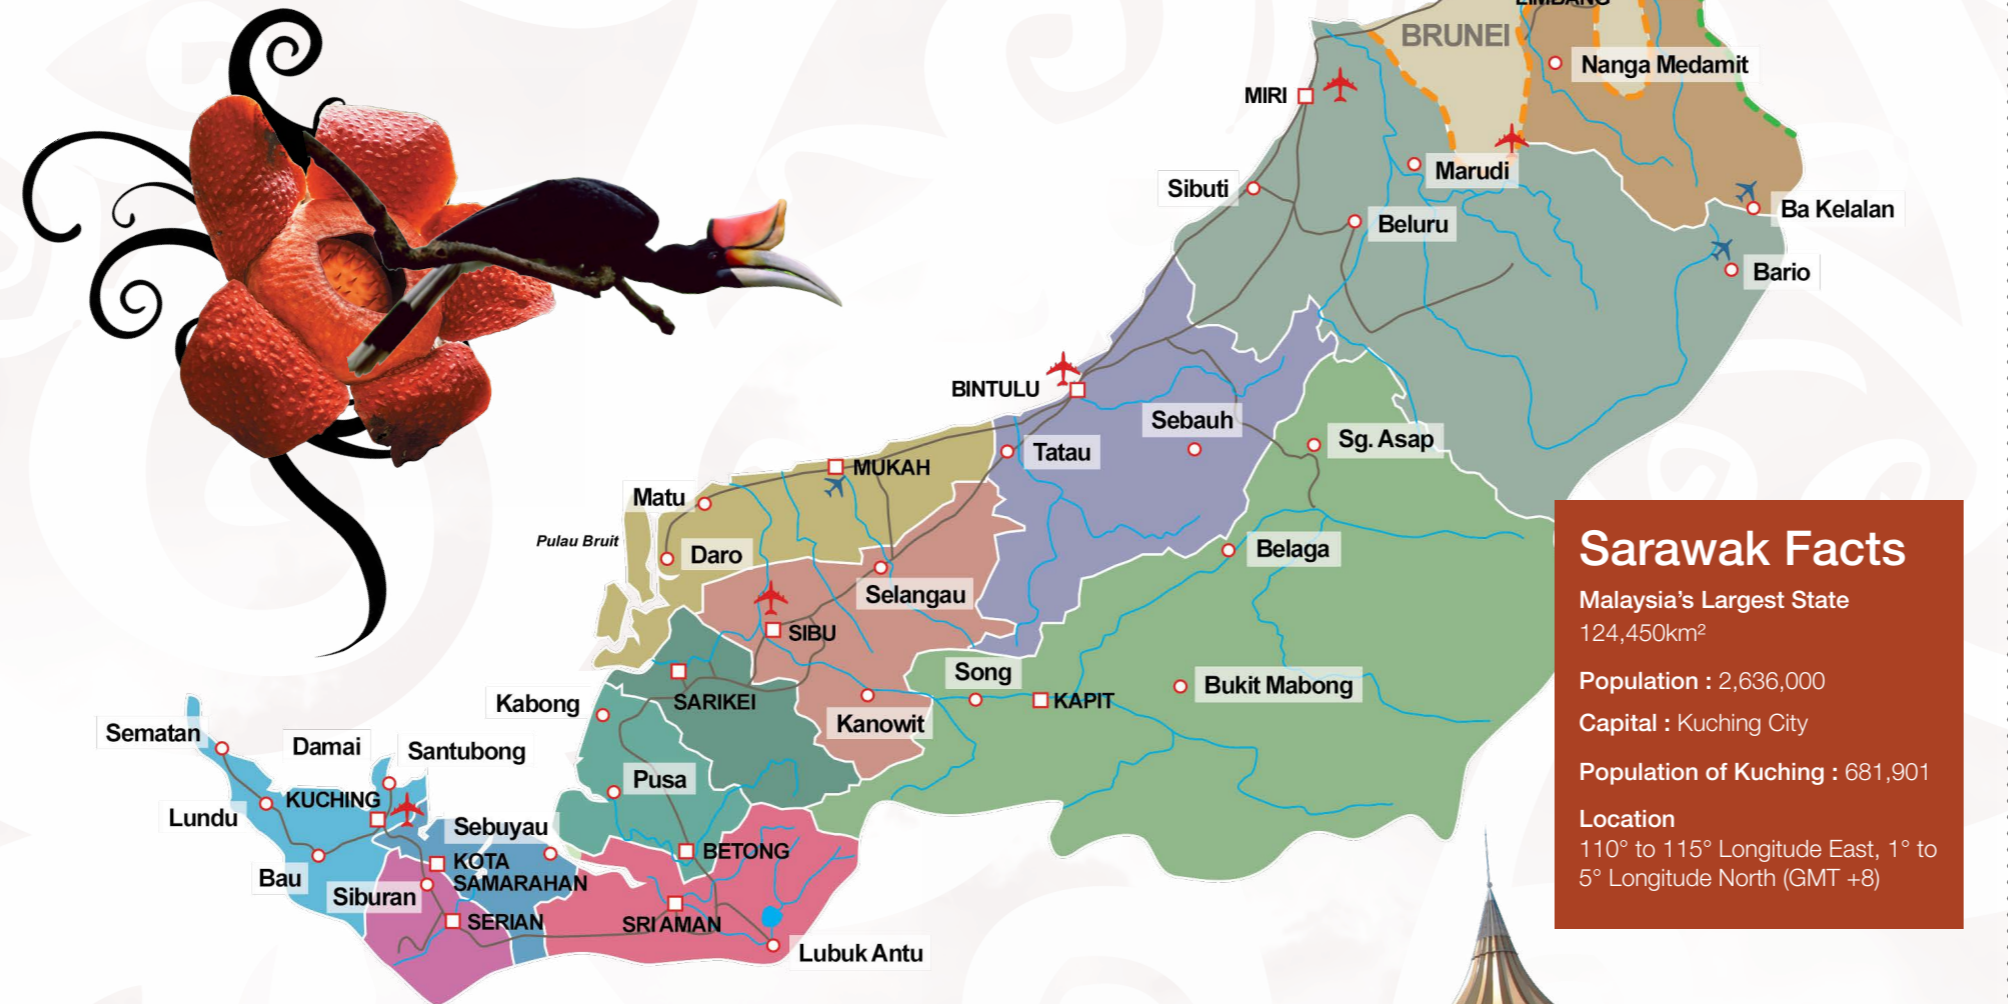

SARAWAK MAP

Sarawak is divided into divisions, 12 in all, each headed by an appointed resident. A division is divided into districts, each headed by a district officer, which are in turn divided into sub-districts, each headed by a Sarawak Administrative Officer (SAO).

There is also one development officer for each division and district to implement development projects. The state government appoints a headman (known as ketua kampung or penghulu) for each village.

There are a total of 26 sub-districts in Sarawak all under the jurisdiction of the Sarawak Ministry of Local Government and Community Development.

SARIKEI DIVISION PROFILE

Sarikei Division includes the Districts of Sarikei, Meradong, Julau, and Pakan. Located on the Rajang River, the capital of the Division is Sarikei town which is accessed by road from Kuching (416km) and also by sea and river by express boats from Sibu (4 hours). The town is also accessed from Sibu airport by road – a journey of 62km (via the Lanang Bridge). A network of roads lead from Sarikei to the towns of Bintangor, Julau and Pakan.

- Sarikei Division is the 6th Division of Sarawak and was formed on 2nd April 1973
- Agriculture is the main economic activity of the Division and the locals are mostly involved in farming of commodities, fruits and vegetables
- Sarikei is synonymous with agricultural products
- Sarikei is known to produce seasonal fruits such as durian, dabai, rambutan which are normally available in the early and towards the end of the year
- Non seasonal fruits which are available all year round are pineapple, oranges, pamelo, bananas, guava, water melon etc
- Sarikei and Bintangor is also famous for its street food which are available everyday.
- Sarikei's real claim to fame is its importance as an agricultural centre; more than 80% of Sarawak's pepper production comes from Sarikei Division, and the area is justly famous for its sweet, succulent pineapples which thrive in the slightly acidic soil here

Notes:

The area code for all telephone numbers in Sarikei, unless otherwise stated is, 084 from outside the area and +6084 from overseas. For mobile phones, add +6 for international dialling followed by the number.

Origin name of Sarikei

There are many theories regarding the origin of the name of Sarikei. Once upon a time, Sarikei was the centre for buying and selling chickens and hence it was called "Sa-rie-kei" ("Sa-rie" in most Chinese dialects means "centre" and "kei" means "chicken"). Later the spelling was changed to Sarikei.

Food Basket of Sarawak

Sarikei is an important agro-based region and known as the Food Basket of Sarawak. More than 80% of Sarawak's pepper production comes from here and the Sarikei pineapple is very much sought-after.

There are also a proliferation of commercial plantations and orchards of oranges, watermelon, pomelo, dabai (local olives), rambutans and durians. Festivals are held celebrating bountiful harvests of fruits. In addition, its rich biodiversity and natural ecosystem is part of the Division's tourist attractions.

People

The residents of Sarikei Division are predominantly Iban, Melanau, Malay, Bidayuh and Chinese but the ethnic mix is as varied as it is elsewhere in Sarawak. The rural hinterland is dotted with Iban longhouses.

Although many of the younger generations have moved into towns, the longhouses and villages are still their ancestral homes where the inhabitants are mainly farmers who cultivate rice and a variety of crops.
